Summary

- BSE stocks finished in the green yesterday, in line with European markets; Angela Merkel reaffirmed Mr. Draghi's comments
- ROBOR rates are almost 100 bp higher than the base rate (except for ROBOR 3M)
- The leu marginally up against the euro

BSE stocks finished in the green yesterday, on the second highest turnover of the month. The jump was in line with the advance posted by European shares, after the German leader Angela Merkel commented that European leaders are on the same page regarding the rescue of EU indebted crisis. This reaffirms earlier comments of Mr. Mario Draghi saying that all necessary steps will be taken to save the euro. European and Asian futures are up, signaling a positive opening for stocks today. On the local market, there were two deals with stocks of Fondul Proprietatea and OMV Petrom. Top 5 shares traded by value are financial stocks FP, SIF1, SIF3 and BRD. Of the above, only BRD traded lower (-0.91%).

Money market rates continued to climb and except for the 3M ROBOR, the rest were 6.22% which is almost 100 bp higher than the base rate. Treasuries' yields advanced as well at the short end of the curve, while the long end traded lower.

The high money market rates keep the leu at higher levels against the euro. The closing EUR/RON was 4.4813 yesterday.
