Germany's RWE is to restructure its activity, spinning off renewables into a new firm, owing to the expansion of renewables and the low wholesale prices of electric energy. S&P has downgraded VW from A- to BBB+. Moreover, US vehicle sales data indicate that VW's sales in America contracted by 25% in a year. A document filed to a US court suggests that Bosch also may be affected by the VW scandal. Germany's Edag, an engineering company, priced its stocks at EUR 19 in today's IPO; the company is planning to raise EUR 191 million. About 40% of its turnover is linked to Volkswagen. China's manufacturing PMI dropped to 49.6 in November, as opposed to the expected stagnation. But it could be encouraging that the private sector's PMI (the Caixin) slightly improved, hitting 48.6 last month.

The eurozone's PMI stayed flat in November, but Germany's index picked up to 52.9. Beating expectations, Germany's unemployment rate sank to 6.3% in November.

The US manufacturing ISM has undershot expectations but construction spending has surpassed analysts' prediction of 0.5%, growing by 1% from the previous month. Along the lines of analysts' poll on US vehicle sales, 18.2 million cars were sold.

Today's important figures include inflation data from the eurozone, as well as the ADP non-farm payroll from the USA. In addition, the Fed's Beige Book will be out, and the Fed chair's will speak before the Washington Club.
