Summary

- Global stock markets were rather gloomy on Friday but Asia opened on a bright note today
- The US dollar has weakened; America released disappointing labour market data
- Turkey's GDP fell 2.4% QoQ.

Gloominess ruled the world's stock markets on Friday. In the USA, the S&P500 and the Nasdaq100 shed 0.2% each. Europe's stock indices saw sharper losses, with Germany's DAX dropping 0.5%, and France's CAC40 and the UK's FTSE100 falling 0.7% each. The unsupportive sentiment left its mark on the CEE region, where Warsaw's WIG20 closed 0.4% down, and Budapest's BUX slid 0.8%.

In this morning's buoyant trading on Asia's stock markets, Japan's Nikkei gained 0.5% and mainland China's SSEC grew by 1.9%.

In Friday's trading the US dollar weakened 0.4% against the EUR and the JPY, and lost 0.5% versus the GBP. The American currency lost strength after releasing a mixed bag of labour market data on Friday. Non-farm payroll expanded by 20,000 only, whereas economists had expected 180,000 growth. However, the unemployment rate fell from 4% to 3.8%, and wages increased by nearly 3.5%.

Turkey's GDP contracted by 3% from the same period of last year, marking the worst performance in nine years. The Turkish economy fell 2.4% in quarter/quarter comparison.

This week there will be three important votes on Brexit between Tuesday and Thursday. The USA will release inflation data on Tuesday.

2. This communication does not contain a comprehensive analysis of the described issues. No part, chapter, or the entirety of this information shall be considered as investment recommendation, an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of any financial instrument, inducement to invest, financial or investment analysis, investment research or marketing communication, not even if any part of this document contains a description of a certain financial instrument in terms of its possible price or yield development, and the related investment options; the data herein are for informational purposes only. This document shall not be considered as investment recommendation falling under Directive 596/2014/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council. This document does not take into account investors' individual interests, circumstances, or objectives; therefore, in the absence of personal recommendation, it shall not be considered as investment advice. OTP Bank intends to make this document available to its clients or to the public, or to make it accessible to other persons in such a way that allows this document to be disseminated to the public.
3. Information herein reflects the market situation at the time of writing. However, it provides only momentary information and may change as market conditions and circumstances develop. You may request more information from OTP Bank. Although the information in this document has been prepared in good faith from sources that OTP Bank believes to be reliable, we do not represent or warrant its accuracy or completeness. This document was prepared using data, facts and information from the following essential sources: Bloomberg, Reuters, KSH (Hungarian Central Statistical Office), Eurostat, Magyar Nemzeti Bank (Hungary's central bank) ÁKK (Hungary's Government Debt Management Agency), and European Central Bank (ECB). The opinions and estimates in this document are based on the opinion of OTP Research's analyst(s) at the time when the document was prepared, and they may be subject to change at any time in the future without further notice. You may receive different recommendation from the staff of OTP Bank, in particular if you are provided investment advice based on an investment advice agreement.
4. This publication contains generic presentation of information and knowledge, thus it does not take into account the individual clients' unique and special interests, financial condition, or their ability and willingness to take risks. Therefore please contact our staff or contact your banking consultant for advice before you make an investment decision. The assessment and the consideration of the individual circumstances is provided by the suitability and appropriateness tests that assess clients' financial knowledge, experience, risk-taking abilities, as well as the examination of the target market.
5. Before making an informed decision to invest and to use the services, please carefully read through all documents, including the documentation, prospectus, regulations, terms and conditions, announcements and key information documents for that product/service, and carefully consider the subject, the risk, the fees and costs of your investment, the possibility of any loss, and seek information about the tax regulations regarding the product and the investment. The prices of financial instruments and securities are changing, outright sales are realized at then current market prices, which may involve losses. The information and opinions in this document do not substitute or take the place of the issuance documentation for the given financial assets (e.g. prospectus, fund management rules), or their brochures or announcements.
6. You assume total responsibility and risk for any specific decision or investment; OTP Bank shall not be held responsible for the effectiveness of investment decisions or for reaching your purpose, nor for the individual investment decision made based on this document or any part thereof, or for their consequences. Investments in financial instruments carry a certain degree of risk, which may affect the effectiveness of the investment decision, and investors may not receive the whole amount they expected the investment to yield in their investment targets; they may not preserve even the invested amount, therefore the invested capital might even decrease, be wholly lost, or even lead to additional payment obligation.
7. Trading with leveraged products (such as foreign exchange contracts) or with shares and indices that have underlying products carries a considerable amount of risk, and these products are not suitable for all investors. Trading with leveraged products carries the risk of losing all capital, and it may incur losses that exceed the amount invested.
8. The figures and information described herein refer to yields or changes in the past. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future yields, changes, or performance. The changes on money and capital markets, the fluctuation of prices, the development of investments and their yields are influenced by the combined effect of multiple factors; one important factor of them is the change in investors' expectations. The development of prices, the future yield of financial assets, indices or indicators, the examination of their changes, trends, and future performance is based on estimations and forecasts, which forecasts do not allow reliable conclusions to be drawn about the future moves of prices, real future yields, changes, or performance. For each product and service, please assess their tax accounting implications, and other tax consequences, taking into account that they cannot be precisely assessed without knowing the effective tax regulations or the client's individual circumstances; and these legislative provisions as well as the circumstances may change over time.
9. This document shall not be a basis for any further analysis in relation to the financial instruments contained therein. Any reference in this document to the future distribution of a financial instrument shall be construed as indicative, preliminary and informative, and any analysis of such financial instrument is exclusively based on publicly available information listed in the respective prospectus or announcement. The content of this document shall not imply that OTP Bank acts as an agent, a fiduciary, or an advisor to, or on behalf of, any prospective purchaser of the financial instruments discussed herein.
10. For certain persons, access to the products and/or services discussed in this document may not be granted, or it may be limited. The act of preparing this document by OTP Bank, its uploading to the website, its publication may under no circumstances be considered as OTP Bank's intention to make available the product and/or service information in the prospectus to persons whom any country or state prohibits from having or obtaining the given product and/or service, including the promotion and the advertisement thereof.

11. OTP Bank maintains a conflict of interest policy and it keeps such records, and it also has requirements that regulate the transmission of bank secrets and securities secrets, which requirements shall be considered as the effective internal organizational and management solutions as well as information barriers to prevent or manage conflicts of interest.
OTP Bank has developed appropriate internal procedures for (i) the personal transactions and trading of financial analysts and other relevant persons, (ii) the physical separation of the financial analysts involved in the production of investment research and other relevant persons; moreover, information barriers have been implemented, (iii) for accepting and managing incentives and remuneration.
Please be informed that OTP Bank is entitled to deal or trade as market maker, acting in good faith and in accordance with the usual way of market-making, with the financial instruments distributed by the issuer(s) specified in this document, as well as to provide other investment activities or ancillary (investment) services, and/or other financial or ancillary financial services to the issuer and other persons.
