Summary

- The sentiment on US stock markets remained positive.
- Western Europe's indices advanced too.
- Industrial metal and crude prices climbed higher on Monday.

Stock exchanges closed higher on both sides of the Atlantic yesterday. The S&P (+0.9) and the Dow (+1.3%) hit levels last visited in mid-June. Within the S&P, financial service providers and industrial companies were the strongest performing sectors, while utilities and the real property sector lagged behind. Of the Dow Jones' components, Boeing (+2.2%) and Caterpillar (+4.1%), most of whose revenues come from exports, marked the steepest rise, in addition to financial service providers. The forthcoming reporting season overwhelmed global trade war fears.

The Stoxx600 and the FTSE both added 0.9%. Following the resignation of Britain's Brexit minister on Sunday night, Foreign Minister Boris Johnson stepped down on Monday. The GBP lost 0.7% versus the US dollar and 0.5% against the EUR. Hand in hand with the rise in industrial metal prices, mining companies' share price also marched higher. Copper futures upped 1.5%, triggering jumps in the share prices of Antofagasta (+3.4), Anglo American (+2.1), and Fresnillo (+1.8%). BHP Billiton surged 2.6% on the back of a Reuters report that BP had submitted a bid in the excess of USD 10 billion for the mining company's US shale oil fields. The Brent grew by 1% and the WTI added 0.2%.

Central and Easter Europe's stock market moved mixed yesterday, when the BUX shed 0.3%, the WIG20 sank three basis points, while Prague's benchmark advanced 0.3%.

This morning Asia's leading stock indices closed higher, even though they ran out of steam by the end of the trading session; the Hang Seng, the Shanghai Composite and the Kospi posted modest gains. Japan's market was more dynamic; the Nikkei increased by 0.7%. The yen weakened 0.2% against the US dollar. The S&P futures stood 0.1% higher this morning.

Today's important releases include industrial production data from the UK and Germany's ZEW economic sentiment indicator. Hungary is to publish trade balance statistics for May and inflation data for June.

2. This communication does not contain a comprehensive analysis of the described issues. No part, chapter, or the entirety of this information shall be considered as investment recommendation, an offer or solicitation for the purchase or sale of any financial instrument, inducement to invest, financial or investment analysis, investment research or marketing communication, not even if any part of this document contains a description of a certain financial instrument in terms of its possible price or yield development, and the related investment options; the data herein are for informational purposes only. This document shall not be considered as investment recommendation falling under Directive 596/2014/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council. This document does not take into account investors' individual interests, circumstances, or objectives; therefore, in the absence of personal recommendation, it shall not be considered as investment advice. OTP Bank intends to make this document available to its clients or to the public, or to make it accessible to other persons in such a way that allows this document to be disseminated to the public.
3. Information herein reflects the market situation at the time of writing. However, it provides only momentary information and may change as market conditions and circumstances develop. You may request more information from OTP Bank. Although the information in this document has been prepared in good faith from sources that OTP Bank believes to be reliable, we do not represent or warrant its accuracy or completeness. This document was prepared using data, facts and information from the following essential sources: Bloomberg, Reuters, KSH (Hungarian Central Statistical Office), Eurostat, Magyar Nemzeti Bank (Hungary's central bank) ÁKK (Hungary's Government Debt Management Agency), and European Central Bank (ECB). The opinions and estimates in this document are based on the opinion of OTP Research's analyst(s) at the time when the document was prepared, and they may be subject to change at any time in the future without further notice. You may receive different recommendation from the staff of OTP Bank, in particular if you are provided investment advice based on an investment advice agreement.
4. This publication contains generic presentation of information and knowledge, thus it does not take into account the individual clients' unique and special interests, financial condition, or their ability and willingness to take risks. Therefore please contact our staff or contact your banking consultant for advice before you make an investment decision. The assessment and the consideration of the individual circumstances is provided by the suitability and appropriateness tests that assess clients' financial knowledge, experience, risk-taking abilities, as well as the examination of the target market.
5. Before making an informed decision to invest and to use the services, please carefully read through all documents, including the documentation, prospectus, regulations, terms and conditions, announcements and key information documents for that product/service, and carefully consider the subject, the risk, the fees and costs of your investment, the possibility of any loss, and seek information about the tax regulations regarding the product and the investment. The prices of financial instruments and securities are changing, outright sales are realized at then current market prices, which may involve losses. The information and opinions in this document do not substitute or take the place of the issuance documentation for the given financial assets (e.g. prospectus, fund management rules), or their brochures or announcements.
6. You assume total responsibility and risk for any specific decision or investment; OTP Bank shall not be held responsible for the effectiveness of investment decisions or for reaching your purpose, nor for the individual investment decision made based on this document or any part thereof, or for their consequences. Investments in financial instruments carry a certain degree of risk, which may affect the effectiveness of the investment decision, and investors may not receive the whole amount they expected the investment to yield in their investment targets; they may not preserve even the invested amount, therefore the invested capital might even decrease, be wholly lost, or even lead to additional payment obligation.
7. Trading with leveraged products (such as foreign exchange contracts) or with shares and indices that have underlying products carries a considerable amount of risk, and these products are not suitable for all investors. Trading with leveraged products carries the risk of losing all capital, and it may incur losses that exceed the amount invested.
8. The figures and information described herein refer to yields or changes in the past. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future yields, changes, or performance. The changes on money and capital markets, the fluctuation of prices, the development of investments and their yields are influenced by the combined effect of multiple factors; one important factor of them is the change in investors' expectations. The development of prices, the future yield of financial assets, indices or indicators, the examination of their changes, trends, and future performance is based on estimations and forecasts, which forecasts do not allow reliable conclusions to be drawn about the future moves of prices, real future yields, changes, or performance. For each product and service, please assess their tax accounting implications, and other tax consequences, taking into account that they cannot be precisely assessed without knowing the effective tax regulations or the client's individual circumstances; and these legislative provisions as well as the circumstances may change over time.
9. This document shall not be a basis for any further analysis in relation to the financial instruments contained therein. Any reference in this document to the future distribution of a financial instrument shall be construed as indicative, preliminary and informative, and any analysis of such financial instrument is exclusively based on publicly available information listed in the respective prospectus or announcement. The content of this document shall not imply that OTP Bank acts as an agent, a fiduciary, or an advisor to, or on behalf of, any prospective purchaser of the financial instruments discussed herein.
10. For certain persons, access to the products and/or services discussed in this document may not be granted, or it may be limited. The act of preparing this document by OTP Bank, its uploading to the website, its publication may under no circumstances be considered as OTP Bank's intention to make available the product and/or service information in the prospectus to persons whom any country or state prohibits from having or obtaining the given product and/or service, including the promotion and the advertisement thereof.

11. OTP Bank maintains a conflict of interest policy and it keeps such records, and it also has requirements that regulate the transmission of bank secrets and securities secrets, which requirements shall be considered as the effective internal organizational and management solutions as well as information barriers to prevent or manage conflicts of interest.
OTP Bank has developed appropriate internal procedures for (i) the personal transactions and trading of financial analysts and other relevant persons, (ii) the physical separation of the financial analysts involved in the production of investment research and other relevant persons; moreover, information barriers have been implemented, (iii) for accepting and managing incentives and remuneration.
Please be informed that OTP Bank is entitled to deal or trade as market maker, acting in good faith and in accordance with the usual way of market-making, with the financial instruments distributed by the issuer(s) specified in this document, as well as to provide other investment activities or ancillary (investment) services, and/or other financial or ancillary financial services to the issuer and other persons.
